

A2 - REVISION UNITS 7 AND 8

1. Match the words to the blank space.

an adolescent	an adult	an old man/woman
an adult	a baby	a child

1. If you are under 1 year of age, you are _____.
2. From 1 to 12 years old, you are _____.
3. From 13 to 19 years old, you are _____.
4. From 20 to 60 years old, you are _____.
5. If you are over 60 years of age, you are _____.
6. If you are between 30 and 40 years of age, you are _____.

2. Select the correct answer.

Example:

The interrogative of They were very sad about the news is

Were they very sad about the news?

1. The interrogative of She was late for class yesterday is
  - Was she late for class yesterday?
  - Was he late for class yesterday?
2. The interrogative of They were in the US last year is
  - They were not in the US last year?
  - Were they in the US last year?
3. The interrogative of I was interested in the story is
  - I was interested in the story?
  - Was I interested in the story?
4. The interrogative of We were very tired after the race is
  - Were we very tired before the race?
  - Were we very tired after the race?
5. The interrogative of He was hurt in an accident three months ago is
  - Was he hurt in an accident three months ago?
  - He was not hurt in an accident three months ago?

3. Select the correct answer.

Example:

The negative of They were very sad about the news is

They were not sad about the news. / They weren't sad about the news.

1. The negative of She was late for class yesterday is
  - She was not / wasn't late for class yesterday.
  - I was not / wasn't late for class yesterday.

2. The negative of They were in the US last year is
  - They were not / weren't in the UK last year.
  - They were not / weren't in the US last year.

3. The negative of I was interested in the story is
  - I was not / wasn't interested in the story.
  - He was not / wasn't interested in the story.

4. The negative of We were very tired after the race is
  - We were not / weren't very tired after the race.
  - We were / weren't very tired after the race.

5. The negative of He was hurt in an accident three months ago is
  - He was not / wasn't hurt in an accident three months ago.
  - He was not / wasn't hurt in an accident two months ago.

4. Match the word to the blank space.

hot	snow	warm weather	rainy	cold weather
-----	------	--------------	-------	--------------

Example:

Wet weather is rainy weather.

1. Spring is associated with _____.
2. The weather in summer is mostly _____.
3. Autumn usually brings _____.
4. _____ means that winter is here.
5. English weather is _____.

5. Select the correct answer.

Example:

The interrogative of I shall be present at the meeting is

Shall I be present at the meeting?

1. The interrogative of They will watch a film tomorrow night is
  - Shall they watch a film tomorrow night?
  - Will they watch a film tomorrow night?

2. The interrogative of We shall write cards to all our friends next December is
  - Shall we write cards to all our friends next December?
  - Shall we write cards to all our friends next November?

3. The interrogative of She will answer your e-mail tomorrow is
  - Will she answer your e-mail tomorrow?
  - Will he answer your e-mail tomorrow?

4. The interrogative of I shall visit Australia next year is
  - I will visit Australia next year?
  - Shall I visit Australia next year?

5. The interrogative of You will meet Sarah next Monday is
  - Will they meet Sarah next Monday?
  - Will you meet Sarah next Monday?

6. Select the correct answer.

Example:

The negative of I shall be present at the meeting is

I shall not be present at the meeting. / I shan't be present at the meeting.

1. The negative of They will watch a film tomorrow night is
  - They will not / won't watch a film tomorrow night.
  - They will not / won't watch tennis tomorrow night.

2. The negative of We shall write cards to all our friends next December is
  - We shall not / shan't write cards to all our friends next December.
  - They shall not / shan't write cards to all their friends next December.

3. The negative of She will answer your e-mail tomorrow is
  - Will she not / won't she answer your e-mail tomorrow.
  - She will not / won't answer your e-mail tomorrow.

4. The negative of I shall visit Australia next year is
  - I shall not / shan't visit Australia next year.
  - I shall not / shall visit Australia next year.

5. The negative of You will meet Sarah next Monday is
  - Will you not / won't meet Sarah next Monday.
  - You will not / won't meet Sarah next Monday.

CORRECT ANSWERS

1. Match the words to the blank space.

an adolescent	an adult	an old man / woman
an adult	a baby	a child

1. If you are under 1 year of age, you are a baby.
2. From 1 to 12 years old, you are a child.
3. From 13 to 19 years old, you are an adolescent.
4. From 20 to 60 years old, you are an adult.
5. If you are over 60 years of age, you are an old man / woman.
6. If you are between 30 and 40 years of age, you are an adult.

2. Select the correct answer.

Example:

The interrogative of They were very sad about the news is

Were they very sad about the news?

1. The interrogative of She was late for class yesterday is

Was she late for class yesterday?

Was he late for class yesterday?

2. The interrogative of They were in the US last year is

They were not in the US last year?

Were they in the US last year?

3. The interrogative of I was interested in the story is

I was interested in the story?

Was I interested in the story?

4. The interrogative of We were very tired after the race is

Were we very tired before the race?

Were we very tired after the race?

5. The interrogative of He was hurt in an accident three months ago is

Was he hurt in an accident three months ago?

He was not hurt in an accident three months ago?

3. Select the correct answer.

Example:

The negative of They were very sad about the news is

They were not sad about the news. / They weren't sad about the news.

1. The negative of She was late for class yesterday is

She was not / wasn't late for class yesterday.

I was not / wasn't late for class yesterday.

2. The negative of They were in the US last year is

They were not / weren't in the UK last year.

They were not / weren't in the US last year.

3. The negative of I was interested in the story is

I was not / wasn't interested in the story.

He was not / wasn't interested in the story.

4. The negative of We were very tired after the race is

We were not / weren't very tired after the race.

We were / weren't very tired after the race.

5. The negative of He was hurt in an accident three months ago is

He was not / wasn't hurt in an accident three months ago.

He was not / wasn't hurt in an accident two months ago.

4. Match the word to the blank space.

hot	snow	warm weather	rainy	cold weather
-----	------	--------------	-------	--------------

Example:

Wet weather is rainy weather.

1. Spring is associated with warm weather.
2. The weather in summer is mostly hot.
3. Autumn usually brings cold weather.
4. snow means that winter is here.
5. English weather is rainy.

5. Select the correct answer.

Example:

The interrogative of I shall be present at the meeting is

Shall I be present at the meeting?

1. The interrogative of They will watch a film tomorrow night is
  - Shall they watch a film tomorrow night?
  - Will they watch a film tomorrow night?

2. The interrogative of We shall write cards to all our friends next December is
  - Shall we write cards to all our friends next December?
  - Shall we write cards to all our friends next November?

3. The interrogative of She will answer your e-mail tomorrow is
  - Will she answer your e-mail tomorrow?
  - Will he answer your e-mail tomorrow?

4. The interrogative of I shall visit Australia next year is
  - I will visit Australia next year?
  - Shall I visit Australia next year?

5. The interrogative of You will meet Sarah next Monday is
  - Will they meet Sarah next Monday?
  - Will you meet Sarah next Monday?

6. Select the correct answer.

Example:

The negative of I shall be present at the meeting is

I shall not be present at the meeting. / I shan't be present at the meeting.

1. The negative of They will watch a film tomorrow night is

They will not / won't watch a film tomorrow night.

They will not / won't watch tennis tomorrow night.

2. The negative of We shall write cards to all our friends next December is

We shall not / shan't write cards to all our friends next December.

They shall not / shan't write cards to all their friends next December.

3. The negative of She will answer your e-mail tomorrow is

Will she not / won't she answer your e-mail tomorrow.

She will not / won't answer your e-mail tomorrow.

4. The negative of I shall visit Australia next year is

I shall not / shan't visit Australia next year.

I shall not / shall visit Australia next year.

5. The negative of You will meet Sarah next Monday is

Will you not / won't meet Sarah next Monday.

You will not / won't meet Sarah next Monday.

